

Human Rights Workshop for Russian and Norwegian Journalism Students

Arranged in cooperation between The Faculty of Media and Journalism, Volda University College (VUC) and The Human Rights Academy (HRA)

Place: Aasen-auditoriet, Volda University College
Time: January 31st – February 1st 2012
Trainers: Lillian Hjorth (HRA), Marianne Holden (HRA), Gunn Bjørnsen (VUC/HRA), Christian Boe Astrup (Norwegian Centre for Human Rights)

Tuesday January 31st (13.00 – 17.00)

- 13.00 – 13.40 Welcome and presentation
- 13.45 – 14.30 Human rights, freedom of speech and journalism
- 14.45 – 15.45 Russia and Norway – and freedom of speech (group work)
- 15.45 – 16.00 Journalistic assignment
- 16.00 – 17.00 Guided tour at the Faculty of Media and Journalism

Wednesday February 1st (09.00 -17.00)

- 09.00 – 09.45 Terror and freedom of speech
- 10.00 – 10.45 Working as a journalist when terrorism struck Norway July 22nd
- 11.00 – 11.45 Dialogue exercise: human rights dilemmas
- 12.00 – 12.45 Lunch
- 12.45 – 13.30 Why should journalists be educated in human rights?
- 13.30 – 14.00 The journalist role: Find the Breaking News!
- 14.00 – 16.30 Editorial work
- 16.30 – 17.00 Evaluation

Thursday 2nd and Friday 3rd February: Participation at the International seminar “Terror and Freedom of Speech” , The Freedom of Speech seminar 2012, Volda

Supported by The Norwegian Ministry of Foreign Affairs and

FRITT ORD